DAY 02 – CIUDAD DE MEXICO – Tepoztlán - Tlayacapan

Breakfast at the hotel.

Under the protection of the Cerro del Tepozteco and with a history that seduces any visitor, Tepoztlán attracts with its mystique, its warm climate and its energy. Getting here can result in rest and meditation as well as in effort and purification, Tepoztlán is the magical town par excellence! But it is also a town of festivities, with its dance of the Chinelos and those vigorous jumps that cheer and give vitality to the neighborhoods at different times of the year. The Tepozteco Hill Its pyramid was built 800 years ago by the Xochimilcas. It was a place of worship and a place of great pilgrimages. Here they worshipped Ometochtli Tepoztécatl, the god of pulque associated with plant fertility and the winds. The sierra where it is located has been a Protected Natural Area since 1937. Around 54 endemic species live here and it is home to a large number of avian species. Visit the pre-Hispanic structure at the top of the hill and appreciate the view of the town from that height. If you want to relax and enjoy nature, Tepoztlán is the right place. The imposing Tepozteco and the delicious snows of the region await you. In addition, we will visit Tlayacapan, a place where a series of wonders are hidden, including its Municipal Palace, considered the oldest in Mexico. Hidden here is a whole series of wonders that include an incredible mountainous landscape, dozens of beautiful neighborhood chapels, traditions, gastronomy and a superb 16th century convent.

Templo y Ex Convento de San Juan Bautista Completed in 1572, it was erected by the Augustinian friars. It has an open chapel, a pilgrims' portal and a formidable cloister with Gothic vaults. Its sala de profundis preserves one of the best mural ensembles of the center of the country.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Lodging

DAY 03 – CIUDAD DE MEXICO – Xochitepec - Tlaltizapán de Zapata

Breakfast at the hotel.

Xochitepec with colorful streets, delicious gastronomy, architectural precincts and an atmosphere that seems stopped in time, Xochitepec is a great option for a weekend getaway. It is less than two hours from Mexico City and is located in the west of the state of Morelos, offering a great tourist proposal to its visitors. Its name means “Cerro de las Flores”, coming from the Nahuatl words, xōchi 'flower', tepē 'hill' and c 'in'. This beautiful Magical Town is rich in traditions, gastronomy, culture, architecture and history. It enjoys an excellent climate, rustic landscapes and natural spaces that give a moment of disconnection and tranquility. In addition, like other places in Morelos, in the region you will be able to enjoy incredible spas with crystal clear waters. In addition, one of the most representative corners of the Magical Town is the Cerrito, an emblematic place that serves as the base of a beautiful clock. It was created by the villagers with the belief that it would serve to prevent diseases and to protect grains and food. The locals say that the Cerrito is essential because it receives the positive energy of cosmic rays and manifests harmony, prosperity and health. Taste the delicious gastronomy of Xochitepec in the municipal market. In addition to tasting antojitos, you will find socio-cultural events and typical crafts of the region. Then we headed to Tlaltizapán de Zapata is known for being the Magical Town of the Southern Revolution and for its beautiful springs with crystal clear waters. These springs are fed by water that thaws in the distant volcanoes, thus creating beautiful spas. Rich in culture, tradition and historical monuments, this destination is ideal for a weekend getaway, as it is only a two-hour drive from Mexico City. Located in the heart of the diverse state of Morelos, this Magical Town offers some of the best spas and water parks in the state. To visit Tlaltizapán de Zapata is to connect with the history and nature characteristic of Morelos. The history of this town is linked to the caudillo of the south, Emiliano Zapata, who fought during the Mexican Revolution with the firm conviction that the land belongs to those who work it. The reason is that the caudillo chose this town as his headquarters of operations, thanks to its strategic location. Therefore, in this place there are several monuments that narrate some of the historical events of the town and Zapata, such as the Zapatista Mausoleum and the Museum of the Southern Revolution.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Lodging
