DAY 02 – MÉRIDA – Pueblos Mayas

Breakfast at the hotel.

Ticul (the pearl of the south) is a quiet and beautiful city located 83 km from the city of Merida, we will visit ceramic workshops of classic and popular type, as well as the footwear industry for women, which have put it in a special place. We arrive in just 15 minutes to Santa Elena, among its attractions are the typical houses, traditional oval shape, which predominate in the village, immediately we realize that in so few km the villagers only speak the Mayan language and Spanish as a second language, we visit outside the majestic colonial style church built on a natural elevation, We visit the house of Don Hernan and Doña Asaria in Santa Elena, they will give us a lecture on how to live a happy life in contact with nature and culture, with them we will make handmade tortillas. We will arrive at 18 km to the restaurant area near Uxmal. Then we will go to the Calcehtok caves, it means "flint deer gorge" of 5 km, every day you can observe one of the most extraordinary events of nature: thousands of bats coming out of this cavern in search of their food in a natural way at sunset, after a space of patience we will observe for a few minutes.

Lunch and dinner on your own.
