The 'island of the swings' is a true paradise in Mexico, hidden in the state of Yucatan in the municipality of Chuburna, this small but magnificent site offers the opportunity to relax peacefully on swings hanging over the water. This little corner of paradise is surrounded by a completely natural mangrove swamp, which not only allows you to appreciate its beauty peacefully, but also to go kayaking -or even swimming- through its space. To get there you must leave by boat from the port of Abrigo in Chuburna, a fairly quick trip in which you can also take advantage of the opportunity to glimpse the endemic species of the destination.

Then we will visit Sisal, so named because of its port where the first henequen exports were made, also called Sisal. We will visit the legendary port of cabotage, its white sandy beaches and exotic natural scenery are among the must-see things in Yucatan, here we will observe, depending on the time of year, migratory birds such as the Canadian duck, who arrives punctually every year seeking the shelter of the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico.
