DAY 03 – MONTERREY - Linares

Breakfast at the hotel.

Undoubtedly, the leading role of the ancient Villa de San Felipe de Linares in the formation of northeastern Mexico makes it an unavoidable destination. But beyond history, Linares is also architecture, color, hospitality and intense flavors. The original architecture of the Plaza de Armas concentrates emblematic buildings that have given it a primordial place in the history of northeastern Mexico. On the east side rises the Cathedral of San Felipe Apostle that gathers baroque and neoclassical elements. It was the first episcopal see in the northeast. Next to it stands the elegant British-style Municipal Palace, one of the most notable Porfirian structures in the area. On the other side is the Casino de Linares, with a European air. Its design is inspired by the Paris Opera House. See the Botica Morelos, of indigenous style, which creates a curious architectural counterpoint.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Lodging

DAY 04 – MONTERREY – General Terán

Breakfast at the hotel

Less than two hours from the metropolitan area of Monterrey, is located the Magical Town of General Teran, named after General Manuel Mier y Teran.

It belongs to the citrus growing region of Nuevo Leon and has the highest percentage of production in all varieties of oranges. Therefore, the scent of orange blossom will welcome you to this beautiful town that becomes a perfect getaway to escape the city traffic. General Teran is an oasis in the middle of the Nuevo Leon desert. Surrounded by the municipalities of Los Ramones, Linares, Montemorelos, China and Cadereyta Jimenez. It has ample vegetation and the Pílon River flows through its territory. If you are looking for an escape from the noise and pollution of the city, a little farther from the Magic Town of Santiago, you have to visit General Teran.

It has several natural, historical and cultural attractions that will accompany your tour through the citrus region of Nuevo Leon. In addition, it offers the visitor delicious typical gastronomy of the state. Here you will be able to taste dishes of freshly made barbecue, kid or mashed.

Walk around Juarez Square where you can admire the Municipal Palace.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Lodging

DAY 05 – MONTERREY – General Zaragoza

Breakfast at the hotel.

Zaragoza is a beautiful Magic Town surrounded by imposing mountains, lush forests, rivers and waterfalls with fresh and crystalline waters. It is a perfect place for nature lovers and, like many places in Nuevo León, it is a paradise for ecotourism and adventure. It is located in the south of the state, less than five hours from the city of Monterrey, in the Sierra Madre Oriental. Thanks to its privileged position, it offers beautiful postcards to all its visitors, with green forests and bodies of water that make this place the perfect getaway.

If you are looking to get away from the city and enjoy a place rich in culture, gastronomy and surrounded by natural wonders, Zaragoza is the best option. Since the route is long. Despite being a road of approximately five hours, the road becomes a perfect setting to observe the mountains of the state, so you will definitely enjoy the journey. In addition, if you pay attention and are lucky, you will be able to admire the fauna of the region from time to time.

Here you will also breathe clean air and enjoy the shade provided by the trees. In addition, you can go hiking, admire the mountains, cool off in crystal clear pools or simply stroll through the main square of the town and enjoy a pleasant afternoon.

Walk around the main square and discover the typical buildings of the town, such as the San José church. If you want to learn more about the history of the region, visit the Rio Blanco Museum. Here you will find samples of fossils and historical pieces that will take you on a journey through the past.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Lodging
