DAY 02 – OAXACA – Guelatao - Calpulálpam

Breakfast at the hotel.

We will start visiting a glass viewpoint in San Pablo de Guelatao, which is located on the top of a hill from where you can see part of the Sierra Juárez and the valleys of Oaxaca; upon arriving at the town of Guelatao we will visit the museum of the place, a replica model house of where Benito Juárez lived, in addition to the lagoon of Guelatao where it is said that he went to graze his sheep when he was a child. Then we will go to the temple of Ixtlán de Juárez where the "Benemérito de las Américas" was baptized. We will also visit the magical town of Calpulálpam de Méndez, there we will have time to eat in the community market, everything is delicious and organic, but a good recommendation is to taste the chichilo, characteristic dish of the region, also considered one of the seven moles of the state of Oaxaca; then we will take a walk in a cultural tour accompanied by a guide of the community, we can appreciate the main attractions of the town as: their houses, the market, their colorful embroidery, its temple, etc.. Then we will take a break in picturesque cabins where we will have a load of firewood to enjoy the warmth of the fire in the fireplace, sheltered from the cold.

Lunch and dinner at leisure.

DAY 03 – OAXACA – Cueva del arroyo

Breakfast at the hotel.

We will leave very early to visit a UMA (Environmental Management Unit) specialized in the conservation of white-tailed deer, we will have the pleasure to live with them, feeding them, observe them in their habitat and take a nice picture, then we will have time for lunch at the town market. We continue our tour walking to the caves "Cueva del Arroyo" where we will appreciate the three levels of the caves in complete darkness, the suggestion is to walk them with bare feet, this gives us a sense of connection with the earth since we sharpen our senses in the unknown; We return to the center of town to recharge our batteries with food and be ready to visit a beautiful Center of Traditional Indigenous Medicine, a place where natural medicine is made with plants of the region, there is also the opportunity to relax with a massage or take a bath in temazcal, this is our last activity of the excursion before leaving to Oaxaca City.

Lunch and dinner at leisure.
