ITINERARY

DAY 01 – IN / HERMOSILLO - Pueblo Mágico de Magdalena y Ruta de las Misiones del Padre Kino - CABORCA

Arrival at Hermosillo airport. Flight before 8:30 a.m. Reception and transfer to your hotel.

9:30 a.m. Departure from Hermosillo A 2 hour drive north of Hermosillo is the magical town of Magdalena de Kino, home to the remains of one of the most important evangelists in history, Father Kino. This Jesuit was the only one capable of establishing permanent missions in the Sonora desert, one of the most difficult regions for the Spanish empire to colonize. This day we visit the missions established since the end of the 17th century, where Father Kino was able to found the towns of San Ignacio de Caborica, Tubtama, Oquitoa, Pitiquito and Caborca. A fascinating tour where the legend of Father Kino and the architectural and cultural legacy of the towns of the Sonoran desert come together. Arrival to Caborca, visit to Pueblo Viejo and check in hotel Caborca.

Lunch and dinner at leisure.

DAY 02 – CABORCA – El Pinacate patrimonio de la humanidad – PUERTO PEÑASCO

Breakfast at the hotel.

El Pinacate is one of the most impressive natural formations in the world in the most beautiful desert. The great biosphere reserve of “El Pinacate and Gran Desierto de Altar”, is a unique ecosystem on a planetary level. In its impressive landscapes there are more than 10 large craters and 400 lava outflows, violent explosions and lava rivers left their traces in the impressive volcanic shield in the middle of the Sonoran desert and next to the dunes of the Gran Desierto de Altar. The visit to Pinacate takes about 3 hours, on a well-preserved 72 km dirt road. Several stops are made to observe different natural formations, among which stands out the impressive crater “El Elegante”. The impressive crater “El Elegante” with its almost 5 kilometers in diameter and the Cerro Colorado of a very particular beauty for its shape and color. Transfer to Puerto Peñasco and check in at the hotel.

DAY 03 – PUERTO PEÑASCO – Gran Desierto de Altar

Breakfast at the hotel.

Early departure to the Gran Desierto de Altar, just 15 minutes from Puerto Peñasco. This desert is the largest dune system in North America, some of the dunes are up to 200 meters high. In order to appreciate these impressive landscapes we hiked almost 5 kilometers. The large sand formations, the volcanic shield in the distance and the Sierra Blanca on the horizon, accompany us in this journey that lasts a couple of hours (it is recommended that if someone does not have enough condition to do this walk, wait for us at the Visitor Center) after the walk, we have time to visit the Pinacate Schuk Toak Visitor Center, a museum that has valuable information to understand the importance of having this natural heritage in Sonora territory, it is also the largest self-sustaining public building in Mexico. After the tour, in the afternoon we have time to relax on the beach of Puerto Peñasco.

DAY 07 – ALAMOS – Álamos Pueblo Mágico y Navojoa - HERMOSILLO

Breakfast at the hotel.

Navojoa is a treasure of the state of Sonora hidden in the Mayo Valley, between the mountains and the coast of the Sea of Cortez. The place of the nopales or prickly pear cactus, is one of the oldest enclaves in the region occupied by the Mayo Indians; since then it was distinguished by the fertility of its soil, the beauty of the landscapes, the richness of its flora and fauna, the transparency of the air and its strategic location, at the foot of the mountains and near the coast.

To all these values it has now added a vast culture, indigenous and mestizo, beautiful traditions and handicrafts, a great variety of products and tourist services, which are offered with the proverbial hospitality of its people.

The Sacred Heart Church, Pueblo Viejo, the Municipal Palace, are samples of its many cultural attractions, which are joined to its natural conditions for the development of ecotourism and hunting tourism, which make Navojoa an attractive tourist destination, with extraordinary possibilities of development. Check In Hotel in Hermosillo
