Itinerary

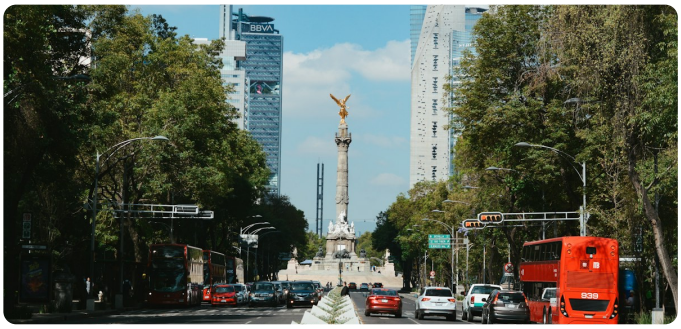

DAY 1

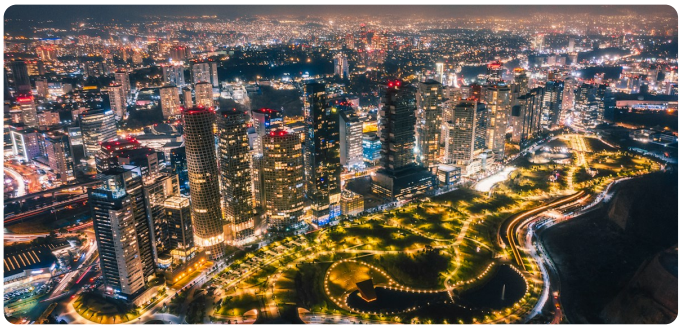

DAY 1 (Monday) – IN / MEXICO CITY

Arrival at Mexico City International Airport.

Transfer and assistance from the airport to the hotel. Check-in. Rest of the day at leisure.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 2

DAY 2 (Tuesday) – MEXICO CITY – Basilica of Guadalupe – Pyramids of Teotihuacán

Breakfast at the hotel.

Panoramic visit to the Plaza of the Three Cultures, a historic site where the final battle between the Aztecs and the Spanish took place, symbolizing the fusion of three cultural eras represented by the Aztec ruins, the Church of Tlatelolco, and the building of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. We will continue to the Basilica of Guadalupe, where we will see the original image of the Virgin of Guadalupe. Learn the story of how it appeared on the cloak of the Indigenous man Juan Diego, and see the old basilica at the foot of Tepeyac Hill. We will travel directly via a modern highway to the archaeological site of Teotihuacán, the City of the Gods, 50 km away, where we can admire the impressive Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon and walk along the Avenue of the Dead. We will visit an obsidian workshop for a demonstration of obsidian and maguey. Buffet lunch (drinks not included).

Dinner at leisure. Overnight stay

DAY 3

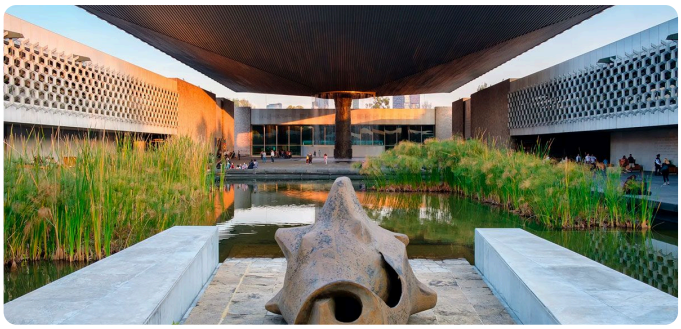

DAY 3 (Wednesday) – MEXICO CITY – City Tour – Museum of Anthropology

Breakfast at the hotel.

Visit the Zócalo and enjoy a panoramic view of the National Palace. We will see the ruins of what was once the Aztec Templo Mayor and the Metropolitan Cathedral. We will take you to the historic Chapultepec Forest, surrounded by residential areas such as Las Lomas, where you will see the homes of famous artists. Visit the National Museum of Anthropology, where you can appreciate a mosaic of the country's most important cultures. You may stay at the museum to explore it fully or be transferred back to your hotel.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 4

DAY 4 (Thursday) – MEXICO CITY – Querétaro – SAN MIGUEL DE ALLENDE

Breakfast at the hotel.

We depart for Querétaro, a World Heritage city, where we will visit the Aqueduct, the former Convent of the Cross, and the Historic Center. We will continue to San Miguel de Allende. The afternoon is free to explore this peaceful city, where the great comedian Mario Moreno, known as "Cantinflas," lived, and which is home to many artists and intellectuals. Important sites include the Parish of San Miguel Arcángel, the Chapel of the Holy House, the Convent of the Conception, the Church of San Francisco, and the Casa e Instituto Allende. Time to explore its streets, squares, shops, or markets.

Check in at the hotel.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay

DAY 5

DAY 5 (Friday) – San Miguel de Allende – Dolores Hidalgo – GUANAJUATO

Breakfast at the hotel.

Depart for Dolores Hidalgo, where Father Don Miguel Hidalgo issued the "Cry of Independence" of Mexico in 1810. There we will find the house-museum of this national hero. We will continue to Guanajuato, a World Heritage city and home to the annual International Cervantino Festival. In the afternoon, we will enjoy this beautiful city, full of alleyways and squares, which offers many interesting sites such as the University, the Juárez Theater, the Alley of the Kiss, and the house-museum of muralist Diego Rivera, husband of Frida Kahlo. Its streets and underground avenues are unique in the country. Other appealing options include the "callejoneada," accompanied by a musical student ensemble or Valencian tuna group, the home of Jorge Negrete, the Quixote Museum, and the Mummies Museum (not included).

Check in at the hotel

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 6

DAY 6 (Saturday) – Guanajuato – ZACATECAS

Breakfast at the hotel.

We will head to Zacatecas, a beautiful mining city designated a World Heritage site, with lovely facades carved from pink stone; its cathedral is the most outstanding example of Mexican Baroque architecture. Enjoy a panoramic view of the city from Cerro de la Bufa, descend by cable car, and take an educational visit to the El Edén Mine. There may be an opportunity to enjoy a musical "callejoneada" with a tambora band. Other appealing options in the city include the Rafael and Pedro Coronel and Francisco Goitia museums (not included).

Check in at the hotel

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 7

DAY 7 (Sunday) – Zacatecas – GUADALAJARA

Breakfast at the hotel.

We depart for the city of Guadalajara, birthplace of Mariachi music and Tequila, both of which make Mexico renowned around the world. Visit the Tlaquepaque neighborhood, famous for producing the finest handicrafts in the state. The famous Sergio Bustamante gallery is located here. There is an opportunity to dine at one of the traditional restaurants accompanied by a mariachi group.

Check in at the hotel

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 8

DAY 8 (Monday) – GUADALAJARA – Tequila

Breakfast at the hotel.

In the morning, enjoy a city tour featuring points of interest such as the Degollado Theater, the cathedral, the Rotunda of Illustrious Men, the Government Palace, home to magnificent murals by Orozco, Tapatía Square, and a panoramic view of the Cabañas Hospice. We continue to Tequila, a typical town where the main distilleries producing this world-famous liquor are located. We will tour a distillery to learn in detail about the production process. Return to Guadalajara.

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 9

DAY 9 (Tuesday) – Guadalajara – Los 3 Potrillos Ranch – Pátzcuaro – MORELIA

Breakfast at the hotel.

We set out on the road again and will visit Vicente Fernández's ranch, Los Tres Potrillos, as far as security guards allow, since it is private property. We will visit its shop, considered the "largest cowboy store in the world."

Continue to Pátzcuaro, whose name means "the gateway to heaven" in the Purépecha language. The city is famous for its colonial beauty, distinctive customs, and local residents. Attractions include the miraculous Basilica of Our Lady of Health, the "House of the Eleven Courtyards," and the historic center with its Vasco de Quiroga and Gertrudis Bocanegra squares. We continue to Morelia, the City of Light, with the best-lit historic center in Mexico.

Optional: enjoy the legendary tales of the colonial era. The arcades in the city center offer a wide variety of cafés and restaurants serving traditional dishes.

Check in at the hotel

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 10

DAY 10 (Wednesday) – Morelia – MEXICO CITY

Breakfast at the hotel.

We will explore Morelia, a World Heritage city renowned for its lively student atmosphere and magnificent colonial buildings made of pink stone: the Cathedral, the Government Palace, Clavijero Palace, the Main Square, the traditional sweets market, the Aqueduct, and the Gualupita Church at the San Diego Convent. Return to Mexico City.

Check in at the hotel

Lunch and dinner at leisure. Overnight stay.

DAY 11

DAY 11 (Thursday) – MEXICO / OUT
